Calhoun County Seeks Recycling Volunteers for New Marshall Recycling Center

Interested in the environment? Looking for community service opportunities? Calhoun County's Solid Waste and Recycling Program is seeking community members to join its corps of recycling volunteers Team Green to assist at the new and upcoming Marshall Recycling Center located at the Calhoun County Road Department, 13300 15 Mile Road, Marshall.

Volunteers are needed during its upcoming hours of operation:

- Tuesday: 10:00 am – 2:00 pm
- Thursday: 2:00 pm – 6:00 pm
- Saturdays: 10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Volunteers will help set up recycle center for daily operation, greet recyclers, unload recycling from cars, sort recycling into collection containers, and help clean up the center at the end of day. The center is open year round and always staffed with a Calhoun County employee when open to the public.

Volunteer training is currently available at the Albion Recycling Center which is open:

- Monday: 10:00 am – 2:00 pm
- Wednesday: 2:00 pm – 6:00 pm
- Saturday: 10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Interested volunteers need to be at least 10 years old and sign a waiver. Volunteers will pass through an application process. The application and waiver is available at <http://calhouncountyrecycling.com/> and at the Environmental Health Department. Applications and waivers will also be available at the Marshall Recycling Center once the center reopens.

Please contact the Calhoun County Public Health Department at (269) 969-6341 for more information.
